Kozlowski Named Executive Director, Capitol Theatre Center

The Capitol Theatre Center, Chambersburg, is pleased to announce that Kelly C. Kozlowski has been named Executive Director. Kelly began her leadership role, effective August 1, 2022. A native and resident of Franklin County, Kozlowski was born and raised in Waynesboro, PA, graduated Waynesboro Senior High School in 2002 and lives in Waynesboro with her husband, Durand and daughter, Kensi.

“We are blessed in Franklin County to have such a wide range of artistic talent, as well as so many residents who have a passion for the arts,” said Kozlowski. “As Executive Director, as our team leader, I’m excited about the future and I want to help our community find outlets for their passions. This historic Theatre has stood the test of time, and we plan to honor our history and move forward into the future creating an environment that celebrates the creativity of our neighbors and provides an enjoyable experience for our patrons.”

Kozlowski’s interest in performing and theatre arts began early, with her participation in live theatre while in elementary school and she has continued her involvement both onstage and behind the scenes, for the past 30 years.

Before assuming her Executive Director responsibilities, Kozlowski served as Managing Director at the Chambersburg Community Theatre, Chambersburg, from 2017 through July 2022. She also served as Advertising Director at Gate House Media from 2015 through 2017.

“We’re truly excited to welcome Kelly as our Executive Director,” said John Kilduff, Capitol Theatre Foundation Board President. “Kelly has significant theatre management experience and she has made a commitment to our Board and staff, to ensure the Theatre brings the very best shows and events to our community. Kelly has strong organizational skills and a great passion for her work. She’s a great addition to the Capitol Theatre family and we’re sure her leadership will pave the way for success into the future.”

Kelly earned her Theatrical Arts Bachelor of Arts degree from Point Park University in 2006 and was a Magna Cum Laude graduate. Her education concentration is in Musical Theatre Performance, with a minor in Theatrical Directing. Kozlowski can be reached at 717-263-0202 x203 or kkozlowski@thecapitoltheatre.org
